The SYMPHONIA ANNOUNCES JANUARY CONCERT

Boca Raton, FL (December 19, 2017)--The SYMPHONIA (thesymphonia.org) South Florida's world class chamber orchestra, has an exciting second Connoisseur Concert planned for January 7th, 2018 at 3 p.m. The concert will be held at Roberts Theater at Saint Andrew's School, 3900 Jog Road in Boca Raton. David Kim will be Guest Conductor and Violin Soloist. The program is "Symphonia Serenades."

The program will include:

GRIEG Holberg Suite
MENDELSSOHN Violin Concerto in E Minor
BARBER Adagio for Strings
PIAZZOLLA Oblivion for Violin and String Orchestra
DVOŘÁK Serenade for Strings

David Kim is concertmaster of The Philadelphia Orchestra and appears as a soloist with the orchestra each season, as well as with numerous orchestras around the world. He is also concertmaster of the All Star Orchestra, and he performs internationally as soloist at festivals such as Brevard, MasterWorks (US), and Pacific (Japan). Highlights of his 2016-17 season include teaching/performance residencies at Bob Jones University, Grove City College, Messiah College, Roberts Wesleyan College, and Rice University. Kim has been awarded three honorary doctorates.

Pre-Concert Conversation:

A Pre-Concert Conversation will take place on the day of the Connoisseur Concert, from 2-2:30 p.m., with the conductor. This provides an opportunity to learn more about the pieces that are to be performed at the concert. There is no charge for concert ticket holders to attend.

Meet the Orchestra

Meet the Orchestra introduces children and their parents to classical music through interaction with musicians at a live dress rehearsal and an "instrument petting zoo." The program will be January 6 from 10:30 am-12 noon. Reservations are required. Children are free. Parents are $5 per person.

Tickets to the concert are available by calling 1-866-687-4201 or emailing tickets@thesymphonia.org. Individual tickets range between $50-84, and season subscriptions are available, as well. For more information, visit thesymphonia.org
