

Boca Life & Arts

The Boca Raton Tribune - B Section

August 30, 2012 through September 5, 2012 • Year III • Number 112

ENTERTAINMENT
 "Free Men" Sheds Light
 on Little-Known Heroes of Nazi-Occupied France

See page B6

ON THE BUDGET
 Mid-Century

FOOD REVIEW
 Bonefish Grill –
 Popularity Well
 Deserved

See page B7

Allegro Society Tuning up for Season

Fundraising Group for Boca Raton Symphonia Planning Musical Luncheon, Teas

BOCA RATON – Would you like a little lunch with your music?

The Allegro Society has a luncheon in the works along with three afternoon teas called "Tea and Symphony" events.

The Society, the support group for the Boca Raton Symphonia, has announced its Third Annual Musical Luncheon will be held Nov. 9 at the Delray Beach Club. The luncheon will include a musical performance by members of the Symphonia and the awarding of a scholarship to an outstanding local music student. Tickets are $75. Co-chairs for the luncheon are Sung Knowles and Vivian Greene. For more information, call 866-MUSIC-01 (866-687-4201).

In advance of that will be the first of three afternoon teas. Scheduled Tuesday, Oct. 23 from 3-5 p.m. at Carmen's Restaurant at the Top of the Bridge, Bridge Hotel, 999 E. Camino Real, Boca Raton, it will feature a 30-minute musical video presentation featuring the Royal Philharmonic. The theme is "Discovering the Orchestra: Woodwind." Tickets are $25. RSVP to 561-376-3848.

Next on the agenda is an afternoon tea Dec. 11 from 3-5 p.m., also at Carmen's. It will feature another 30-minute video of the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra. This time, it will focus on the percussion section. Tickets are $25 and available at the same number.

The final afternoon tea will be held Jan. 8 from 3 to 5 p.m., again at Carmen's. This event will feature a 30-minute video of the Royal Philharmonic, focusing on the concert. Tickets are $25 and available at the same number.

The mission of the Allegro Society is:
 To expand awareness of the Boca Raton Symphonia, thus enhancing the cultural life of the community.

To assist the Symphonia Board of Directors in their effort to increase audience participation and financial development.

To offer volunteer assistance.

Its goals are:

- To develop liaisons within various residential and business communities.
- To build relations with other organizations.
- To identify and encourage support of the Boca Raton Symphonia and the Boca Raton Symphonia's Educational Programs.
- To work in conjunction with the Board of Directors in their outreach endeavors.
- To develop events as requested by the Board of Directors.